The Student Production Association of Lane Community College announces auditions for James and the Giant Peach for Spring 2023 Show.

EUGENE – The Student Production Association (SPA) of Lane Community College (LCC) has announced its winter production: James and the Giant Peach. Auditions will be held on January 25th and January 26th from 5:00-8:00 in the Blue Door Theater on LCC's main campus. Actors may show up any time.

SPA is looking for actors of all ages and types to play Grasshopper, Lady Bug, Earth Worm, and lots of other crazy characters in this play for children of all ages.

The play follows James, who is sent by his conniving aunts to chop down their old fruit tree. He discovers a magic potion that grows a tremendous peach, which rolls down the hill, into the ocean and launches a journey of enormous proportions! James befriends a collection of wacky insects and they all ride the giant peach together. Along the way James realizes that he is brave, smart and courageous! The play is dramatized by Richard R. George from the book by Roald Dahl.

The production will be directed by Jen Gerould, who returns to work with SPA after co-directing "Songs for a New World" last year. James and the Giant Peach will take place May 4-7, 2022.
